

SOCIETY

There will be the usual weekly informal dance for club members and their guests tonight at the Hermitage country club. These dances have been attractive features of the season and will be continued through the late winter and spring months. An orchestra will play for the dancing, which will begin at 8 o'clock.

Guests of Mrs. Sampson.—Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. Harnberger, of Washington, with their daughter and their little son, are guests of Mrs. John Russell, of the Glenview Park. Mrs. Harnberger will be remembered in Richmond as Miss Anna Lacy Woods, daughter of Dr. James L. Woods, of Tang-Kiang, China, and granddaughter of Rev. Dr. John Russell, of Stonewall Jackson's staff.

Dance for School Set.—A pretty dance for the younger girls and boys was given last night by Dr. and Mrs. Harnberger, of Washington, at the Hermitage country club. The dance took place at the Tucker home, 2700 Monument street. Decorations were carried out in spring flowers and refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

Miss Helen Sauer will entertain the Senior Class of the Elletts School at her home today at 1230 East 12th street. Decorations will be carried out in the school colors and about twenty guests will be present.

Attending Dance.—Miss Margaret G. Simpson, of 3706 Grove Avenue, left on Wednesday for Cape Charles to attend the midwinter dance given by the North Hampton Yacht Club. This is one of the social events of the season and will be attended by all the younger society set of the Eastern Shore. Miss Simpson will go from there to Norfolk where she will be the guest of Miss Helen Sauer, later visiting her brother, Dr. William A. Simpson, of Portsmouth.

Robert Robertson.—Miss Nellie Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Robertson, of Lynchburg, is expected to arrive in Cape Charles today. She is the daughter of a prominent family and will be a guest of the hostess at the dance.

At the White.—Mrs. Philip H. McMillan, of Detroit, Mich., with her brother, Larz Anderson, of Washington, are at the White Sulphur Springs. Mrs. Anderson is the daughter of a prominent family and will be a guest of the hostess at the dance.

STEWARDSHIP BEING DWELT UPON IN VIRGINIA CHURCHES

Two Special Prayer Periods Set Aside, February 20 to "Life Building Day."

This month is being devoted to the stewardship campaign which will culminate in "Stewardship Enrollment Day" on Sunday, February 22, by the Virginia division of the Interchurch World Movement. Two special prayer periods have been set aside, Friday, February 20, being designated as united day of prayer by home societies and Sunday, February 22, as "Life Building Day" and "Day of Prayer" for students. This latter date will be observed especially by colleges throughout the State.

Twelve Protestant evangelized denominations in Virginia are taking part in this stewardship campaign, the great objective of which are to lay upon the conscience of the churches the principles of Christian stewardship and to secure a definite response to this effort through the enrollment of a league of 10,000,000 Christian stewards, acknowledging God's ownership and their responsibility in the use of His gifts.

Practical methods are being employed in Virginia as well as by the national stewardship department of the Interchurch World Movement in carrying out this campaign. The co-operation of all denominations is being sought. Already 42,821 letters have been mailed to pastors and other leaders throughout the country. Fifteen other denominations have drafted letters to their respective constituents. This is said to be the first time the various denominations have co-ordinated to stress one line of teaching on a given subject for a period of time.

Retail Markets Are in Good Shape

Storms Having Passed By Ocean and Land Furnish Things to Eat.

The ocean storms having abated, the fish market is again fairly supplied as the normal figures for the good things from the sea, and the snow that covered the land having evaporated, the poultry and meat markets are again in their glory, and the trains from the far South having resumed schedules, the vegetable and fruit stands have plenty of stock.

Altogether the housewives will find the retail markets in very good shape this morning and they will have no trouble in providing the Sunday dinner. If they have good long purses they can even get strawberries very cheap—only 10 cents a quart.
